

Tempus

Development of Embedded System Courses with implementation of Innovative Virtual approaches for integration of Research, Education and Production in UA, GE, AM

DESIRE

TRAINING CERTIFICATE

This is to certify, that

Tabunshchyk Galyna

as a participant of the international project "DESIRE" (Development of Embedded System Courses with implementation of Innovative Virtual approaches for integration of Research, Education and Production in UA, GE, AM), code 544091-2013-BE-JPCR on the Tempus program of European Commission has visited Constantine the Philosopher University in Nitra, Slovakia for training sessions in the period of September, 14 to September, 21, 2014.

During the training participant has been acquainted with materials concerning design and implementation in education of e_learning methods and remote laboratories, and attended courses on:

- The Bologna Process and European Higher Education Area,
- E-learning methods in education,
- Information technologies in the Remote experiment,
- Interactive forms of learning supported by computer technology,
- Workshops on the use of remote labs and interactive forms of learning,
- Workshops on the use of project funded equipment in education.

The participant also visited the laboratory equipment in the departments of Constantine the Philosopher University in Nitra and took part in the project meeting on 17/9 and in the discussion of the current project results.

Ing. Dirk Van Merode, Msc.
DESIRE Coordinator
Thomas More University College, BE

Prof. Ing. Tomáš Kozík, DrSc.
Department of Technology and Information Technologies
Faculty of Education, Constantine the Philosopher University in Nitra, SK

